TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 22, 1864

Likely to Lose Themselves

In our advertising columns a notice appears this morning, signed by several respectable gentlemen, who seem inclined to try galvanic experiments upon the damp and decaying corpse of Democracy We are sorry for their sake, that they are willing to waste their time and strength in such a perfectly useless way, and we still more regret that they should risk their reputation by identifying themselves with a cause, in behalf of which no good citizen ought to be willing to say a single word, or do a single act They have perhaps heard of the servant girl, who, during a steamboat trip, lost her certificate of good character, given by her former employer Having shown it to the Captain, when she went on board, she asked him for a recommendation in place of that which was lost, and he wrote one in these words "This is to certify that Miss had a good character when she got on my boat at Cairo, but lost it on the trip down" The signers of the call are embarked on an expedition in which they will be very sure to lose whatever reputation they now possess for patriotism, and no certificate can hereafter reinstate them in popular esteem and confidence. It will merely show that whatever good qualities they had on starting, they lost on the trip down, for they propose to organize a party, the purpose of which is not the salvation of the nation, nor the strengthening of the arms of the government in its fearful contest with treason; they aim at the accomplishment of measures, which suit rebels in arms, and will give them encouragement and comfort If the prosperity of the country was the real object of the action proposed, it would not be said, as it now is, with rejoicing glee, when tidings of Democratic activity go South "The northern Democracy is moving, and public sentiment in the loyal States is becoming more divided in regard to the prosecution of the war" It cannot be denied that there is a full understanding between rebels at the South, and Democrats at the North In both sections there is a common purpose, tending to the same mischievous result Will men, who claim to be loyal, honest and intelligent, permit themselves to be used as tools of treason? Will they thus foolishly lose their characters as friends of the Union? They cannot help seeing that every effort made by them, must injure the great cause of the Republic and must give confidence and new energy to its enemies. If they could defeat the Union party, would they do the least thing to prosecute the war, and to punish treason? Certainly not, for their hearts are in sympathy with the South, and in stern and unyielding opposition to the North, and to the Government Individuals among them may not admit this, but if peace is not the desire of any they have no business to lose themselves in the vain and wicked experiment which the managers propose to make upon the life and integrity of our free institutions Patriots had better forget how to write, rather than to sign a paper, which in a few years will haunt their vision and become their political death warrant

THEY MUST BE WATCHED—It is customary for Democrats to denounce the action of the Administration in its conduct of the war, as a "scheme for the military abolitionization of the South." They are afraid slavery will go down with the rebellion, and as they see the power of treason daily becoming weaker, they are all the more noisy in their appeals that slavery may be let alone They want the South protected, though they seem to care very little what may become of the North If they had their way they would make the Government beg pardon of the leaders of the rebellion, because it has not submitted to them, but had presumed to send armies to subdue them. Their hearts are with the South and so from all appearances, they will continue to be so long as the war lasts They are joined to their ungodly idols, and all patriots can do is to pity their foolish treason—and to watch them so that they may do no serious harm to the country

HOW TOOMBS CAN REALIZE HIS PROPHECY—Some years ago, the Georgia Senator in his mad enthusiasm on the prospects of the extension of slavery, declared that he expected to see the day when he should be able to call the roll of his slaves under the shadow of the Bunker Hill monument John M Botts has lately suggested a mode of realizing this famous prophesy He says if the President will let Mr. Toombs visit the North, the latter will find most of his slaves there before him, and collect them and call the roll and no harm done.

JUST RETRIBUTION—Gen. Wilde in command in North Carolina knows how to tame the rebels Two of his black soldiers were recently captured by them, whereupon he seized the wife and family of the Colonel who took them and notified him that the fate of the negroes would be that of the women and children. The negroes were restored

A Key West letter has a rumor that one of Farragut's steamers has passed Fort Morgan under a terrible fire. There was another rumor that he had captured the works.

An army dispatch confirms the report that Stuart is crossing the Rappahannock, and says Kilpatrick and Merritt are on his track

NEW YORK, March 18—The Tribune's dispatch says the tax on refined petroleum will be 20 cents, and on malt 30 cents

The Times' Paris correspondent announces the important fact that Minister Dayton has served a written notification upon the French Emperor that if the rebel cruiser Rappahannock, now at Calais be allowed to proceed to sea, the French Government will be held responsible for all damage she may do to American commerce It is also announced that the French Government has issued stringent regulations concerning the cruisers of belligerent powers among other things, it is specified that no vessels belonging to either of the belligerents can remain in port for two hours, unless on account of stress of weather or for necessary repairs No vessel can return to any French port after leaving it in less time than three months

WASHINGTON March 18—The House Committee on Commerce have agreed upon and ordered a joint resolution to be reported authorizing and requiring the President to give notice of the termination of the reciprocity treaty at the end of 15 months from the date of the expiration of 10 years from the time that the treaty went into operation, unless a new Convention shall before that time be concluded between the two powers, by which present provisions shall be so modified as to be mutually satisfactory to both parties The President is authorized to appoint three Commissioners, with the consent of the Senate, to confer with Commissioners appointed by Great Britain to negotiate a new treaty between the two Governments based upon true principles of reciprocity, and for the removal of existing difficulties

SPRINGFIELD, Mass, March 19—Eight persons have already died from the effect of injuries received in the recent cartridge manufactory explosion.

BOSTON, March 18—The British prize steamer Mary Ann from Wilmington for Nassau with a cargo of cotton, has arrived here. She was captured by the gunboat Grand Gulf

HARRISBURG Pa, March 18—Gens Burnside and Hancock were handsomely received by both branches of the Legislature yesterday In the afternoon, in company with Gov Curtin they reviewed the 5th, 48th and 50th regiments These regiments were under marching orders for Annapolis where Burnside's Corps is concentrated Burnside evidently goes to North Carolina again Hancock has freely expressed the opinion that his Corps will re enter the Army of the Potomac Recruiting very active this spring

CAIRO March 18—Several persons were arrested a few days since for having organized themselves into a company, with the avowed purpose of entering the rebel service A number of rebel sympathizers have recently been actively recruiting in this vicinity for the rebel army Guerrilla bands are being formed by the citizens of several counties and towns in Kentucky, for the purpose of interrupting navigation on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers

NEW YORK, March 18—The World's special has a report that Stuart, with 5,000 cavalry, crossed the Rappahannock near Fredericksburg Our army is on hand, ready for either a raid or a general movement on the part of the enemy It is thought that the rebel cavalry will make a demonstration towards Baltimore over the railroad

There is a rumor of a conspiracy embracing several counties and cities in Kentucky, having for its object the transferring of Kentucky into the Confederacy The headquarters of the leaders is at Monticello They are corresponding with Longstreet in Tennessee. It is also stated that the Kentucky delegation in Richmond has had secret correspondence with parties in Loudon, Manchester, Mount Vernon, Danville, and other towns in Kentucky, for the establishment of a central committee in every county and compel them to join the Confederacy as soon as Longstreet or Breckinridge should enter the State This infamous conspiracy it is said was discovered by the seizure in different postoffices of letters addressed by a member of the rebel Congress to some leaders in the plot.

Gen Gillmore's Chief of Staff states that the lower part of Charleston is nearly destroyed and only the upper part is now occupied by troops

The rebels are stated to have a large force in North Carolina distributed along the railroad from Petersburg to Wilmington.

It is said that Longstreet will be appointed to the command of Southern Virginia. Kirby Smith takes his place in East Tennessee.

NEW YORK, March 18—A Washington special says The House Committee of Foreign Affairs will, it is said, shortly report a series of bills upon the Mexican question, taking strong grounds in favor of the Monroe doctrine

The Herald's special says: Secretary of the Treasury will not employ any agents to carry into effect the power conferred on him by the Gold bill It is not expected any action will be had under it for several days if not weeks

The World's special, dated Washington March 19th, says: Clement C Barclay of Philadelphia, arrived here to day, bearing a rumor that the rebels intend the invasion of Maryland His statements are entitled some credence from the fact that he made the earliest announcement of Lee's intended invasion of Maryland last June Some facts in partial corroboration of this report are known here

It is believed the enemy are burning to avenge the foray of Gen Kilpatrick, and while Grant is preparing for the capture of Richmond, Lee will execute one of his bold moves, abandon his communications with the rebel capital, and make a dash on Washington or the Army of the Potomac

Two of our soldiers were captured yesterday near Munster's Hill, showing that the rebel scouts are within our lines Active preparations for defense of the forts around Washington indicate that the military authorities are apprehensive of a foray at least if not for a movement of the main body of Lee's army towards Washington

The Tribune's special, dated Washington March 18th, says: Stuart has not crossed at Fredericksburg with 5,000 men Letters from headquarters dated this morning, have the following By reason of the report that Stewart was concentrating large bodies of cavalry at Fredericksburg preparatory to a raid, our cavalry corps has been placed under marching orders at a moment's notice Regarding Stuart's movements, a rumor at Warrenton Junction says he bivouacked last night a few miles south of that place, but nothing confirmatory to this had been received when the mail train passed that place this morning The enemy are strengthening their pickets along the Rapidan and have thrown up new works and made more formidable those they already have opposite the several fords

NEW YORK, March 18—A Culpepper dispatch says several officers on Cedar Mountain reported yesterday that the rebels who had been in camp across the Rapidan all winter, broke up their encampment, set fire to their huts and were marching in the direction of the Shenandoah valley

WASHINGTON March 19—Parties from the front report that a rebel advance was anticipated yesterday Marching orders had been given to nearly all of our commands After all was in readiness to move the order was countermanded and things settled into their usual order though some skirmishing is going on there

CINCINNATI March 19—Dispatches from Columbus say that the veteran regiments of Ohio, belonging to the Department of the South, have been ordered to the Army of the Potomac.

Chattanooga dispatches say the rebels are in large force in front but make no demonstrations

Thirty five Federal prisoners escaped from the Columbus, South Carolina prison, March 16th.

A rebel dispatch from Meridian, Miss, says that Sherman has gone down the Mississippi with his troops, evidently destined for Red river

Breckinridge takes command in South western Virginia

Gen Price has issued orders dated Longwood, Ark, March [illegible] resuming command of the rebel Department of Arkansas

NEW YORK March 20—The Times special says the excitement in regard to the threatened raid by Stuart has subsided A detachment of the enemy [illegible] crossed the Rappahannock at Fredericksburg on Wednesday night, and on the following day 18th, the cavalry captured 20 of them On Friday morning another detachment crossed at Morris Ford and drove in the 7th Michigan, but was subsequently forced back across the river Stuart is presumed to be recruiting his cavalry at Charlottesville where he has three brigades and there [illegible] two at French [illegible]

The Herald's Western Virginia special of the 19th [illegible] says all quiet in Shenandoah Valley

Late reports from Kanawha Valley don't confirm the reports that a strong force of rebels is marching [illegible] Barboursville [illegible]

It is stated that the rebels in Virginia are repairing the railroad

WASHINGTON March 20—There are 32 vessels now ready for sea and are waiting for crews It is supposed that a transfer of troops from the army will supply the demand

NEW YORK March 19—The steamer Ellen F[illegible] from New Orleans on the 13th has arrived. The Times urges the sending of [illegible]0,000 troops into North Carolina It says Newbern is impregnable but the time has come when the Federal army should penetrate to the interior carrying the banner of social and political emancipation

ST LOUIS March 18—The capture of Jacksonport Ark by the rebels is reported They drove out two companies of the 4th Missouri Cavalry and came very near capturing steamer Dare also report [illegible] that Quantrell is preparing to make a raid into Missouri in the spring

FORT SMITH March 18—The Arkansas election closed last night, having continued three days under the old [illegible] system All counties North and about twenty south of Arkansas river voted. Ten to fifteen thousand votes were cast The new State Constitution proposed by the late convention, was almost unanimously adopted, there being so far only 1[illegible] votes against it Murphy for governor and the whole State ticket is elected

Union men in Texas are concentrating in anticipation of a speedy protection from Gen. Herron's column which is moving in that direction

It has been decided that the army of the frontier shall remain under Gen Thayer, which leaves Gen Blunt without a command

CAIRO March 18—The estimated force of the enemy in the fight in front of Yazoo City is 5,000 men and 4 pieces of artillery

CHATTANOOGA March 18—Considerable excitement prevails throughout Georgia on account of Gov Brown's message The rebel papers discuss it with much violence

Freight trains were captured near Tullahoma last night by a party of Wheeler's cavalry Two colored regiments are reported to have had a number killed and wounded Several officers on board were taken prisoners, stripped and robbed of their money A detachment of the 5th New York regiment coming up, drove the rebels off, killing twenty

The rebel papers are loud in the praise of recent speeches delivered by Gov Vance, in North Carolina Convention All rebel churches have been called upon to devise means to check the increase of vice

NEW ORLEANS March 12—Considerable activity in military affairs here Gen Banks is on the eve of departure for Western Louisiana.

Madisonville on Lake Ponchartrain opposite New Orleans has been evacuated The extensive fortifications thrown up on the land side were left but add nothing to the strength of the place for the rebels.

WASHINGTON, March 20—Letters from Europe report all kinds of titles of nobility being conferred by Maximillian on Secessionists who in large numbers attend him from Paris to Mexico Mr Gwin, is to be a Duke

BALTIMORE, March 20—A company of guerrillas made a dash into Bath robbed and captured prisoners and decamped But few rebels in the valley. This is the first instance for weeks that they have committed depredations

Parties from up the valley report that all furloughed rebel soldiers have been called back to join their regiments in Lee's army

Special dispatches say bills are being prepared by the Senate and House Committees of Commerce, to establish lines of first class steamships between New York and several European ports, which will be provided with the necessary armament, not only to protect themselves but to capture pirates The Navy Department approves these measures and will render all the aid in its power for their establishment The Post Office committee have same subject under consideration, and will shortly make a report

It is ascertained from official sources, that the effective army of the United States, now in the field, exceeds by two hundred thousand the force of one year ago

It is stated by authority that Gen Grant takes command of the Army of the Potomac in person

SAN FRANCISCO March 21—The indefinite postponement in the Legislature of the bill to raise the fares of the city street railroad is the occasion of much rejoicing here to night.

The steamer Orejon from Mazatlan, to day, brings advices from San Blas and Tepic, which is virtually under the French control, although there are no forces there, the officers are carrying out all the orders of the French An effectual blockade is being maintained of all the ports south of Manzanillo.

The French land forces left Guadalajara on the 24th Feb for Colima. Supposed engagement with the National forces has occurred before this

The crop of Gen Penn Johnston & Co, near Mazatlan, will yield 300 pounds per acre

Henry M. Graham, sues opposition steamship company for $25,000 damages sustained by detention on the Isthmus and second class accommodations instead of first class, as paid for

News by the Steamer

NEWBERN, N C, March 7th—A Kingston correspondent of the Raleigh Confederate, speaking of the hanging on the 6th in Kingston, of 23 captured soldiers and deserters from the rebel conscription, says that the prisoners ascended the scaffold with a firm and elastic step and met their fate with unflinching fortitude They asked no questions, and scornfully spurned the overtures of concession on condition of their returning to duty in the Confederate service Multitudes were moved to tears and openly denounced the cruel massacre which was causing desertions from the Confederate service by wholesale and creating an indignation which, it was feared would be uncontrollable It was reported that the rebels intend hanging the entire number of Union soldiers captured by them from Col Foster's command 54 in number, the half of whom had never been in the rebel service The native Union troops have decided to take the matter of retaliation into their own hands They have given officers who do not approve of severe measures an opportunity to resign and have also given warning that immediate death will be inflicted on any officer who offers hereafter to surrender to the enemy or ask quarter

FORTRESS MONROE March 9—The flag of truce steamer has arrived from City Point with 100 prisoners exchanged for an equal number of Confederates

A dispatch from Wilmington the 7th says a blockade steamer was sunk off Cape Fear yesterday

The Richmond Whig of the 7th announces the arrival of 800 prisoners for exchange, under the stipulations of the cartel

The Richmond Examiner of the 8th contains an account of three fires on Friday night in the vicinity of Richmond, destroying over $100,000 worth of property It says that these conflagrations occurring in almost opposite points of the compass from the city within a few hours of each other, lead to the belief that they were kindled by skulking Yankees who perhaps were separated and lost in the late raid and have adopted this method of signalling each other for the purpose of getting together

NORFOLK (Va) March 10—Yesterday afternoon our picket line composed of the 2d Colored cavalry, near Suffolk, was attacked by a force of the enemy, supposed to be four regiments of infantry a regiment in 1 squad of cavalry and two full batteries Our pickets fell back to Barrett Hill where reinforcements were sent to their assistance The enemy seeing the strength of our column did not continue the pursuit While the Colored regiment were falling back, there was continual skirmishing At some points they stood their ground manfully and others were perfectly panic stricken About 100 are missing Two officers were killed A force was sent out subsequently who found the enemy in full force at Bernard's mill, where they still are. Our troops are face to face with them Our position is impregnable

The cavalry under Kilpatrick, which made the recent raid around Lee's army and came down to Yorktown have marched across the Peninsula to Newport News, and to day are embarking for Portsmouth Va, from which place they will march on Suffolk, where Gen Heckman is quite seriously threatened by the enemy who are said to number 20,000

FORTRESS MONROE March [illegible]—Gen Neal Dow and Capts Flynn and Sawyer have arrived here having been exchanged

WASHINGTON March 10—The House unanimously passed the bill increasing the pensions of revolutionary survivors [illegible] to $100 additional per annum, [illegible]

Mr Arnold introduced a bill providing for permanent peace, by removing the cause of the war It provides that from and after the passage of the bill, slavery shall be abolished in all States and Territories It was referred to the Judiciary Committee

Mr Ashley introduced a bill extending the time in which the States and Territories may avail themselves of the act donating public lands for the establishment of agricultural colleges which was referred to the Committee on Public Lands

NEW YORK, March 10—The steamship Roanoke from Havana the 5th says that 800 troops are hourly expected from Cuba to join the St Domingo expedition The English steamer [illegible] with a cargo of cotton ran the blockade of Mobile on the night of the 28th February and had arrived at Havana

NEW YORK March 11—New Orleans advices to the 1st state that the bombardment of Fort Powell below Mobile is continued vigorously. The rebel batteries have replied but none of our vessels has been seriously hurt The only casualty so far was the wounding of one man [illegible] from the fleet says that Farragut intends to silence Fort Powell so as to sail the Mosquito Fleet into the Bay By so doing he will cut off Forts Morgan and Gaines The Bay is said to be obstructed [illegible] below Mobile, in such a manner that vessels are compelled to pass under the guns of two iron [illegible] from the shore on the west side Mobile is strongly defended at every point [illegible] The ram Tennessee still lies in the Bay Mobile is almost entirely destitute of soldiers 30,000 have gone to meet Sherman

FORT SMITH Ark, March 11—Citizens from Santa Fe who arrived to day on the Choctaw [illegible] say that the people of New Mexico are in a great fear of a rebel raid into their country in consequence of the Federal occupation of the entire Southwest Gen Herron having blockaded all the routes to Mexico on the Rio Grande

A Convention of the Choctaw Nation was called for the middle of April, and will embrace all the leading men of the tribe. Gov Massey had failed to induce the Choctaws to continue their relations with the Confederacy The Convention will propose the old terms of allegiance to the United States

Chief Jack McCurtain has circulated over 4,000 copies of the President's Amnesty Proclamation, which was received with great favor. The Seminoles and Chickasaws were still obdurate, owing mainly to the influence of Gen. Cooper, the old Indian Agent

WHEELING Va March 12—Letters from Braxton county report Jackson and Imboden, with a large force, within a short distance of Sutton, preparing for a raid We have a few companies in Braxton County and other points in that part of the State but it is doubtful whether the Union troops have a sufficiently strong force to resist the rebel advance Gen Sigel has arrived here to take command of the Military Department

ST LOUIS, March 12—Advance from Natchez 2d inst, says that reliable information puts the rebel force in West Louisiana between 5,000 and 6,000, under Dick Taylor and Gen Polignac The enemy are fortifying Fort Derussy, on Black river, and Trinity on the Ouachita but only a provost guard are at Shreveport Three rams are building below that point

NEW YORK, March 13—The Morning Star from New Orleans the 6th has arrived Gov Hahn was inaugurated on the 4th. The ceremonies were impressive Gen Banks delivered an address and predicted the reduction of the insurrection to three or four States on the Atlantic coast during this season's campaign Hahn's inaugural regards slavery as the cause of the present unholy attempt to break up the government, and its universal and immediate extinction as a public and private blessing. He says "From every light before me I am constrained to believe that the cause of the rebellion is in its extremity. It seems not extravagant to look upon this year as the final one of the most senseless and murderous rebellion that ever occurred in a civilized nation"

NEW YORK, March 15—A special Washington dispatch to the Times says

There is some contradiction as to the action of Government in reference to the exchange of prisoners The facts are these Some weeks since Commissioner Ould notified Gen Butler that at a certain date he would declare certain paroled prisoners exchanged so that he (Butler) might do the same, to which Butler acceded, and issued an order as suggested by Commissioner Ould, which was at once countermanded by our Government. Butler then made a percentage arrangement, and Government has stopped that, notwithstanding the semi official contradiction that the plan of exchange adopted by Butler had been rejected by the War Department, and exchanges on that basis have been stopped

The Mobile papers of the 9th say that the Yankee forces attempted to land on Dauphin's Island, thinking it unoccupied but seeing that the Confederate soldiers were waiting to receive them, they hastily retired They afterwards shelled the woods furiously

Yankee pickets boats ply with impunity to the foot of Fort Gaines wharf

KNOXVILLE, March 16—The Executive Committee of the Knoxville-Greenville Convention of 1861 met here to-day and adopted measures to reassemble the Convention on 12th of April The movement looks to a separate State organization for East Tennessee.

NEW YORK, March 17—The Richmond Examiner of the 10th says Gen Ross reports coming in contact with a company of negro cavalry near Canton, Miss 55 were killed out of 70

A letter received from Richmond reports a Yankee blockader sunk off Fort Holmes by the fire of Fort Holmes. Name not stated

The World's special dispatch says Burnside will be assigned to the Department of the South instead of Fremont Rumor assigns Hancock a Department, and states that Grant will assign Fremont to active duty Also, that Gen Thomas will soon be relieved from command of the Army of the Cumberland to the command of which either Rosecrans or Herron will probably succeed

SHERMAN AND COLFAX—At the Whig Convention held in Philadelphia in 1848, two young gentlemen appeared as delegates from two Democratic districts in adjoining States and in 1852 they again appeared as delegates to a Whig National Convention A delegate arose and said that a young friend of his was present from a district so strongly Democratic that he could never expect to get an office of any kind at home, and he would therefore nominate as Secretary to the Convention John Sherman of Ohio Another delegate said that he also had a young friend present as a delegate from another strong Democratic district where he could never hope for a home office, and he therefore nominated Schuyler Colfax of Indiana as Assistant Secretary Two years passed away the incipient steps of the conspiracy against the Union had been taken by the slave lords, and in these two old Democratic districts of Ohio and Indiana, John Sherman and Schuyler Colfax were elected to Congress and on the first Monday of December, 1855, they took their seats in the House of Representatives Four years ago Sherman was put in nomination for the Speakership of the House by the Republicans but withdrew and Pennington was elected In March 1861 he was elected to the United States Senate in place of Chase who resigned to take the place of Secretary of the Treasury. Colfax continued in the House and is now its Speaker These two fortunate and successful gentlemen were born in the same year one in March, the other in May They have both achieved an enviable reputation and an honored name; one starting in life as an engineer on the Ohio canal and the other as a printer —N Y Evening Post

LABOR WELL PAID—There is no country in the world where labor is so well paid as in the United States at the present time The demand for skilled labor is so great as in a measure to defeat the requirements of the armies in the field and a competition arises between the employers and the Government for the possession of this labor States and cities to induce volunteering to raise their required quota, have to increase the amount of the bounties and employers to retain their men have to add to the amount of their wages These high prices and bounties are however, not only attracting large numbers of emigrants from Europe, but the British Provinces are sending quite a large portion of their laboring population to this country. In the army or in the workshop they will find their services adequately paid.

THE RUSH TO OUR MINES—San Francisco papers, received by steamer last evening are full of paragraphs noting incidents connected with the rush of freight and passengers to this city by every steamer. The Bulletin says the spectacle has been seldom paralleled in that city "From the gateway of Broadway wharf along Davis street to California, and along California to Battery street a continuous line of trucks, etc, heavily loaded, were waiting to discharge their contents along-side of the steamship Brother Jonathan, which is bound for Portland and Victoria At noon, 102 vehicles were counted in the line, which was still receiving accessions Most of those on the line were trucks averaging nearly three tons, measurement freight It was uncertain when the steamer would commence receiving the goods, and the truckmen in many instances unharnessed their horses and took them back to their stables Although the trucks, when they got into line, were apparently fully loaded, yet the desire to ship was so great that other teams were engaged in hauling light goods to the line, where, by the shippers pleading and generous payment, a number of the trucks received additional freight" The same article says "The great rush of goods is for Portland, and such is the anxiety of shippers that teamsters in some cases are reported to have promised them $50 per load—others are reported to have engaged for $2 per hour" The line commenced forming at one o'clock in the morning, and did not commence unloading until sundown The Sierra Nevada will leave on Monday for this port and is set for 1000 tons of freight The bark Jane A Falkenberg would soon leave with 600 tons, and the barks Samuel Merritt and Almatia, both in the river, are heavily loaded, yet the demand for transports is unceasing The Finance Report of the Bulletin, speaking of the Oregon trade says "The fear has been expressed here recently that too many goods were being shipped to Oregon thus early in the season but this is not the feeling among merchants from that State On the contrary, buyers have been so scrupulously careful of their credit as to refuse all time purchases, limiting themselves entirely to cash in hand. Sales to an Oregon trader were exhibited, showing a good general assortment of groceries ordered, and the purchaser wanted to buy, and had orders in hand for three or four more similar bills of goods but was reluctant about giving orders for packing, until he was certain of getting freight for the merchandise already ordered and then on drays." The Call says "Sailing vessels are put up for Portland and taken immediately, by those who are determined to be first in the market We notice that a large proportion of the gold-hunters are recently from the Atlantic States, men not well calculated to brave the harships of a frontier life, and we [illegible] that too many of them will become [illegible]aged and turn back. If they feel [illegible] become disheartened, let them [illegible] on from those who have served an apprenticeship in the hills of California, and push forward and see if there is anything in it—for only the bold can win"

ARRIVAL OF THE BROTHER JONATHAN.—The steamship Brother Jonathan arrived last evening about five o'clock rather unexpectedly, as it had been announced, and was understood that she would first go to Victoria, on this trip She left San Francisco on the 17th, and as every berth, and almost every foot of room in the cabin, was taken for this place two days before hand besides, the rush of freight being for Portland, she came direct. The following list comprises her passengers

THE CONCERT LAST EVENING—The Methodist Church was filled with a delighted audience, up stairs and down last evening, at the Concert given by the choir of the Presbyterian Church under the leadership of Mr J. B. Wyatt The music throughout exhibited a high order of cultivated talent, and the success of the first effort will no doubt give them fresh courage for a grand entertainment in aid of their new and commodious edifice, so soon as it is far enough completed to admit of its occupation for that purpose Lack of space prevents our entering into any expression of opinion as to the merits of the several participants, and where each and all done so well, it is impossible to particularize, without seeming to be invidious We hope soon to listen to a repetition of the pieces, and bespeak a crowded house

THE FIRE IN THE WOODS—The rains for two days have pretty much subdued the flames in the forests of the surrounding country Mr Jackson Powell informs us that the damage has been immense and that we have been able to report but a fractional part of it In some instances fire-brands were carried for miles by the wind, and igniting in new places would burn furiously, and spread rapidly, creating great havoc The fire was principally confined to the tall timbers, and has burned over a large district. Mr Powell is perhaps the greatest loser of any, among the sufferers

A CAVALCADE—An expedition of Simcoe Indians, numbering some sixty or seventy, attired in "gorgeous robes," and wearing plumes, made their appearance in our streets yesterday, mounted on their ponies, bound for the Tualitan, where they intend to fish and hunt, during the coming season They presented an imposing line, as they rode down Front street from the ferry landing to the old siwash camping ground below the city, and were the subjects of much comment

THANKS—We are requested by the choir of the Presbyterian Church to express their thanks to the Trustees of the Methodist Church, for the use of their edifice upon the occasion of the concert last evening

THE NEWS—We publish all the news by steamer not anticipated by Telegraph. Our Telegraphic dates are four days later than received by steamer

DETTER'S HAIR RESTORATIVE
FOR BALD HEADS.
IT IS NOT MY INTENTION TO HUMBUG THE PUBlic. This Restorative has built up a world wide reputation upon its own merits, as is considered by those who have used it, to be the best article ever invented for the Hair. Read the following certificate:
Lewiston Sept 3d 1863
This is to certify that I have used DETTER'S HAIR RESTORATIVE and I take great pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe and effectual preparation for the restoration of the Hair. I was nearly bald when I commenced the use of it, and after using two bottles, I find it has produced a fine, healthy growth of hair, and that, too in less than two months. I can heartily recommend it for its great virtues and efficiency. S D RAMSDELL,

STATES MACKEREL No 1 for sale at HARRINGTON'S

Written for the Oregonian.

Battle of Missionary Ridge.

Since rank rebellion took its stand
In this heaven-favored land,
In this [illegible] its horrid blood-stained band
And [illegible] Freedom's sacred portal,
[illegible] laurels have been won,
No worthier actions have been done,
No brighter deeds have seen the sun,
Than in that fight
Which met the sight
On "Missionary's" bloody hight
And made the place immortal.

Now up and down that mountain side,
In phalanx firm, both long and wide,
Stood Treason's hosts in haughty pride,
Arranged in warlike order;
High on its crest, with breastworks crowned,
Long rows of dark artillery frowned,
And hosts on hosts were circling round
In grim array
To court the fray,
And dedicate the eventful day
To history's stern recorder.

But mark! they have a work to do,
For freedom's sons are full in view,
Led by a man sincere and true,
Whose plans were never shaken.
He scanned the programme at a glance,
At once decided to advance,
And with Old Braxton take his chance
To give him fight
And scale the hight
And show the world a glorious sight
That could not be mistaken.

Now onward, boys, whate'er betide,
'Tis ours to check that foeman's pride
And drive him from that mountain's side,
No matter what his bravery;
Now of your hearts and at your hands
Your Country's honor now demands
That you should break the infernal bands
That stamp disgrace
On every face,
On every spot and every place
That feels the curse of slavery.

With bounding pride Ulysses hears
The loud enthusiastic cheers
From hearts of steel that know no fears
While fighting freedom's battles;
Through defiles dark his columns teemed,
O'er craggy steeps his banners streamed,
While sabres flashed and bayonets gleamed,
And cannon roared,
And muskets poured
Their leaden hail on that base horde
Who dealt in human chattels.

Now step by step their course they keep,
While every inch of ground they sweep
As they ascend that rugged steep
Secure in self-reliance;
And onward up, and onward up,
They neither halt, delay nor stop,
Till on that mountain's frowning top
In one broad blaze
Of wild huzzas,
They publish Northern freedom's praise
In tones of bold defiance.

Now Slavery's God-forsaken host,
With all their Bragg and all their boast,
Distinctly saw the day was lost
Beyond all reclamation;
They shrunk from that victorious shout,
And faced at once to rear about
In one confused, disordered rout;
And with an air
Of black despair,
Each breathed a deep, blasphemous prayer
In startling consternation.

Our honored dead shall live in song,
And be remembered just as long
As patriots read of right and wrong
On history's faithful pages;
Like music peals their names shall sound,
While Father Time, with mien profound,
Shall roll his grand millennial round,
And all behold
In letters bold
Their names in Heaven's book enrolled
Through grateful future ages.

DAYTON, March 15, 1864. O. P. Q.

The Cake-Seller of Beekman Street.

The sun was just coming up and taking its first peep into the city, as a woman came stumping up Beekman street, who immediately challenged my attention, and made me forget the coming brightness of the day, and the folly of men and women that sleep away this the most beautiful and soul-inspiring of all the hours of the twenty-four.

Was it anything strange to see a woman coming up Beekman street, the noisy thoroughfare of thousands?

Yes. For at this sunrise hour this woman was alone; not another human being treading those cold gray stones in sight. Her outward seeming, too, was strange. On her head she carried a board three feet long and eighteen inches wide, which supported an old nail keg. She was lame, and seemed to walk with difficulty; but still she carried her load steadily. In one hand she held a large market basket, and the other carried or half dragged a box sixteen inches square. Her dress was old and patched, but it was clean.

Clump, clump, clump, she came up the street, with her board, keg, box, and basket, until exactly opposite the window of my "town hired" apartment, and there she plumped down, and put her box upon the step of a large business house opposite. No, not the step, but within the space between two columns of said building, which made a little recess for her use. Next her basket was released from her weary grasp; then up went the freed hands and the keg came down carefully upon the step beside the box; and last, the long board left its perch above the black, genteel hood, and took its place upon the keg; and straightway there was a table filling all the space between those columns, except that which was occupied by the box. Now the white cloth that covered the contents of the basket became a table spread, and was laid neatly over the board, and hid the old nail-keg from the gaze of the passer-by. And then the treasures of the basket one by one found their place upon the clean side-table — sponge-cakes, cream-cakes, ginger-snaps, pound-cakes, crullers, jumbles, and I know not what, until inviting groups flecked the white cloth, corners, niches and centre, with a tempting variety.

The basket disappeared under the shadow of the table, and when the whole was completed, the lame woman looked it over with earnest scrutiny, adjusted a few refractory cakes, and then, placing her hands upon her hips, she surveyed the whole with evident satisfaction for a moment, before seating herself upon her box, to await the coming of her customers. Only one moment's rest did she give those busy hands. No sooner seated was she, than her sewing emerged from her pocket. The needle was threaded, and the work spread out upon her lap.

Ah! what a revelation was bound up in that bit of scarlet calico! In its folds lay the parts of a tiny slip which revealed to my motherly vision a baby child just tottering alone, for whom those busy fingers were "plying that needle and thread."

I drew my chair and writing-stand near the window, and as my pen scratched over the paper, ever and anon my eyes wandered out of that narrow room, through open windows, down to this trader by the wayside.

Stitch, stitch, stitch, went her needle—the hand only stopping to pick up a penny as make change for a little yellow paper, as cake after cake disappeared. How I wished more people would pause before that impromptu stall. Why did they pass her and trade with that red-faced creature opposite, who was scolding or coaxing every passer by?

There, the skirt of that baby slip is done, and edged with a stripe of white braid around the bottom. She holds it up and looks at it, and the light of love glows all over her homely, care-marked face. Now come the waist and sleeves; mayhap her stitches are not as well set or her work such as would take premiums at fairs, but it will do.

The great clock chimes twelve. A penny from her pocket buys an apple from another woman who walks by with her basket, and a doughnut and her apple make her wholesome lunch for the day. Not once has she risen from her box. Now a cake is handed to a boy who with a tin cup which has been hid away in her basket, bounds away and soon returns with water from the neighboring fountain.

Her head droops against the corner, her face turned toward her cakes, and upward towards the clear blue sky, glowing with the mid-day sun.

Her eyes close, and the red slip lies quietly beneath her hands. She is asleep—the first falling footstep near her awakens her! So she dozes for half an hour, and then, busy as ever, pursues her task. Two o'clock! More customers. The tired and hungry goers to and fro pause and take refreshment. She lays by her work for a little—exchanges two cakes for an orange, and by-and-by three or four for two large apples; presently a candy dealer leaves a bright red and white twist in the place of a cream cake, and all these new acquisitions are laid in a corner by themselves.

Her stock is getting low, and the sun is sending long slopes of shadow eastward. Now she holds up the little red dress by the sleeve, surveys it with loving looks, and lays it across her lap, and leaning forward, looks wistfully down the street.

The sun sinks lower; the high walls of commerce and trade are darkening the shadows there, and still her eyes peer wistfully among the crowd, as if some beloved object was expected.

Ha! how her face brightens! what radiance of joy gleams on every feature! Up goes the little red slip, held in both hands; and in less time than I have taken to write the words, an old woman, who evidently bears upon her broad shoulders the weight of threescore years and ten, drops into the extended arms of the patient, waiting worker, a beautiful child, who clasps her neck and nestles in her bosom, almost speaking his delight in half-cry and half-laughter. There is no delay; the maternal fountain is given to his use. And then old deaf Granny is told of the results of the day, and treated to the last of the remnants upon the stand. That big apple was for her. Now little Rosy-cheeks lifts up his head, bound with golden curls, and claims that braid of candy. How he laughs and crows, and for every demonstration of joy he is clasped to his mother's breast and smothered with kisses!

Hundreds have passed this humble group, yet not one has seen this exhibition of filial and maternal love. The words "mother" and "granny" reach me to the second story, as the cake-seller tries to make the deaf old woman hear; and I know by the full, round, musical tone, that love, true and pure, lies sweetly sleeping in the hearts of the two.

Whose eyes see that little red slip put upon that baby boy? who sees that mother's heart-felt satisfaction at the fit? who sees the proud crowning of the bright faced darling, with his pouting mouth made all the sweeter by daube of candy? Who sees that proud old grandmother leading her pet away, his little bare feet pattering along the hard pavement, and his merry laughter keeping time to the pattering?

The cake-seller's work is done for the day. She rises up and straightens with difficulty her cramped and crippled limbs. The remnants of cakes are laid in the basket, the white cloth folded, and laid over them, the board lifted upon her head, the old nail keg hoisted above, the box and basket taken in the two hands, and clump, clump, clump, she passes down the street in the dim twilight, her day's work of love and duty done.

All this long, long day I had been waiting for a telegram to tell me of the fate of one most dear, and that humble creature, crippled yet earnest, faithful, and loving, helped me to grow stronger for the fate that awaited me.

And when at last that fearful dispatch came that crushed my hopes, and transferred my loves from earth to heaven, I knew I was able to say with more perfect resignation, "My Father, Thy will, not mine, be done," because of the patient work and cheerful smile of the cake-seller of Beekman street.—New York Independent.

HELMBOLD'S Genuine Preparation.

"HIGHLY CONCENTRATED Compound Fluid

EXTRACT BUCHU,

A POSITIVE AND SPECIFIC REMEDY

FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL

AND

DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of DIGESTION and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCEROUS depositions, and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION, and is good for

MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion,	Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory,	Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves,	Trembling,
Horror of Disease,	Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision,	Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the	Muscular System,
Hot Hands,	Flushing of the Body,
Dryness of the Skin,	Eruptions on the Face,
	Pallid Countenance.

These symptoms if allowed to go, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follows

Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,

IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,"

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess.

THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,

And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion that

THE CONSTITUTION,

once affected by Organic Weakness,

Requires the Aid of Medicine,

to strengthen and invigorate the system, which

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

invariably does.

A Trial will Convince the most Skeptical.

FEMALES! FEMALES!! FEMALES!!

OLD OR YOUNG,

Single, Married or contemplating Marriage

IN MANY AFFECTIONS PECULIAR TO FEMALES, the Extract of Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhea or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the Sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE!

(See symptoms above.

No Family should be without it.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU,

AND

HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

CURES SECRET DISEASES,

In all their Stages; At Little Expense,
Little or no Change in Diet; No inconvenience,

AND NO EXPOSURE.

It causes a frequent desire and gives strength to Urinate, thereby Removing Obstructions, preventing and curing Strictures of the Urethra, allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in the class of Diseases, and expelling all Poisonous, diseased and worn out matter.

THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS

Who have been the victims of Quacks

and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "POISON" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage.

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu

For all Affections and Diseases of the URINARY ORGANS, whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and

NO MATTER OF HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of these Organs require the aid of a Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,

And it is certain to have the desired effect in Diseases for which it is recommended.

AYER'S ℞ Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK. Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing. Yours with great respect,

ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours,

ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 15, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here. GEO. J. GRIFFIN, P[illegible]

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. In every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

The GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY!

Thorn's Compound Extract of

COPAIBA AND SARSAPARILLA

POSSESSES advantages not possessed by any other medicine for the cure of Sex[illegible] and which are, with an enlightened public, [illegible] highly popular, as a desideratum long sought [illegible] medical world. It needs no confinement or change of diet. In its approved form of a paste, it is entirely tasteless and causes no unpleasant sensation to the patient.

It has acquired the utmost fame in almost every part of Europe. It has been examined, approved of and recommended by the faculty of medicine, and recommended by the most eminent of the profession.

As the above valuable preparation has been extensively counterfeited by unprincipled parties in the United States, to SECURE THE GENUINE observe this LABEL both on and covering the bottom of each Pot:

J. B. Thorn, Chemist, London; John A. Tarrant, New York, Sole Agent for the United States.

The Stamp on each pot will also bear the name of the proprietor, and the United States Agent.

DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS will observe on each and every package the following label:

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The increased reputation and great demand for Thorn's Compound Extract of Copaiba and Sarsaparilla, have led inducements to others to offer imitations of the valuable medicine. Venders are particularly warned of this fact, that they may be on their guard, and not dispose of an impure article, calculated to injure their reputation and destroy the merits of the original preparation, to which the subscriber, [successor to James Tarrant,] to whom it was first introduced into the United States, has attached his signature to this caution, to counterfeit which is forgery.
